Dear Sir,

Sub: Clarification regarding incorrect information circulating on social mediaRef: Regulation 30(11) of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015

This is with reference to a post circulating on social media (specifically, a post by the handle @REDBOXINDIA and other social media handles on X, formerly Twitter) claiming that Pricol Limited ("the Company") has announced the acquisition of a 100% stake in a German automotive components firm.

The Company hereby categorically denies the above claim. The said information is factually incorrect, baseless and misleading. The Company has not made any such announcement, nor has it entered into any agreement, understanding, or arrangement for the acquisition of any German automotive components company.

The Company is in full compliance with its disclosure obligations under the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015.

Shareholders and investors are advised not to rely on unverified information from unofficial sources and are requested to refer only to the Company's filings on the BSE and NSE websites and the Company's official website for authentic information.

We request you to kindly take the above clarification on record and disseminate the same to all market participants.

Thanking you

Yours faithfully,
For Pricol limitedT.G.Thamizhanban
